*A wedding & event
planner and coordinator in
Stafford, Virginia*

About Amanda

Amanda Lovett is a Certified Wedding Planner and Event Management Coordinator in the Stafford, Virginia, Washington, DC, and central Virginia surrounding area. Amanda brings over 20 years of event planning and management experience at venues, vendors, and planning and coordinating weddings and events for family, friends, and her personal wedding and events.

She specializes in planning and designing weddings, venue selection, vendor selection, vendor management, guest and bridal party management, event set up, catering, and wedding day coordination. In addition to weddings, Amanda also specializes in providing planning and coordination services for bridal activities, engagement parties, bridal showers and bachelorette/bachelor parties, spa & wellness retreats, rehearsal & rehearsal dinners, and morning after brunch, as well as private events.

When Amanda is not planning and coordinating weddings, she is a High School Biology and Earth Science teacher, Marine Scientist, and yoga instructor. She has two beautiful children, two dogs, and two cats. In her spare time, Amanda loves to go to the beach, hike, paddleboard, go camping, playing music, and doing yoga with the kids. She also has a passion for designing and photography and would love to incorporate her passion into your event!
